Marc J. Goldstein
MJG Arbitration & Mediation

Professional Experience

Now in his 13th year as an independent arbitrator and mediator focused on international commercial disputes and complex business disputes, Mr. Goldstein has served as a neutral in more than 115 cases. In his 38-year career, Mr. Goldstein has been a neutral or advocate in cases under CPR, ICC, LCIA, ICDR, SIAC, UNCITRAL and AAA Commercial Rules. He practiced based in New York with Proskauer Rose (1980-2003) and Hodgson Russ (2004-2007) and led the international arbitration practice at each firm. He has been appointed by CPR to the following CPR Panels: National, International, Accounting, Banking & Finance, Sports & Entertainment.

Primary Practice Areas

Over more than 25 years of ADR practice, Mr. Goldstein has acquired in-depth knowledge of domestic and international arbitration procedure and US arbitration law including the Federal Arbitration Act and the international conventions governing arbitration agreements and awards. He has published many articles and commentaries on those subjects. Major business and industry sectors in his practice have included aviation, banking and finance, securities, insurance, international trade, pharmaceuticals, franchising, distribution, information technology, real estate, and professional sports and entertainment. Recurring legal subject matters in his practice have included US securities law, US antitrust law, New York commercial and tort law, copyright and trademark, fiduciary duty, Delaware corporation law, and international law on the responsibilities of sovereign States toward foreign investors. Mr. Goldstein's cases as a neutral and as an advocate have often involved complex valuation and damages issues, and the use of economic models to analyze such issues.

Dispute Resolution Experience and Training

In addition to above-described experience as a neutral, from 1985 to 2017 Mr. Goldstein acted as an advocate in more than 100 arbitrations, arbitration-related judicial proceedings, and mediations. Recent Arbitration-Focused Training: ASIL-ITA Symposium on Diversity and Inclusion in International Arbitration, Washington DC, April 2018; USC/JAMS Arbitration Institute Symposium on Current Issues in International Arbitration, Los Angeles, March 2018; IBA Arbitration Day, Buenos Aires, February 2018; AAA-ICDR/ICC/ICSID Joint Colloquium, New York, December 2017. Recent Mediation-Focused Training: Harvard Program on Negotiation (HPON) Advanced Master Class, November 2016; HPON Webinar "Bargaining With the Devil..." Professor Robert Mnookin, July 2016; International Mediation Institute (IMI) international mediator certification course, Brussels, August 2015; HPON September 2013. Recent Reading on Conflict Resolution: George W. Adams QC, Mediating Justice: Legal Dispute Negotiations (2d ed) (completed July 2017); Deepak Malhotra, Negotiating the Impossible: How to Break Deadlocks and Resolve Ugly Conflicts (completed July 2016).
